Bio Statement: Krissy Katsimbras

I fell in love with photography several years ago and it has become my peace and tranquility. I have recently discovered the digital aspect of creating interesting and unique variations to certain photographs. I really enjoy applying these effects to make one-of-a-kind pieces. What I love most is taking an ordinary object and making it extraordinary! Over the years I have created my own method on how I photograph and create my work. I don't use fancy lenses or tripods. Instead, I aspire to use my own gift of creativity rather than doing things "by the book". My hope is that my creations will bring you a sense of wonder and evoke thoughts of endless curiosity.
