What are Idea and Experience Boxes?

Washoe County Library System received a federal grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Sciences. These funds were used to pilot user-driven activities in the library that range from learning how to paint to creating your own airplane.

1:30 - 2:30 p.m. Paws 2 Read. Reading program for children of all ages proudly presented by Paws 4 Love. Friendly dogs lend a loving, non-judgmental ear to beginning readers. After reading to a gentle dog, children receive a free book.

Sunday, June 12

3 - 5 p.m. Movie Matinee. Zootopia. "In a city of animals, a rookie bunny cop and a cynical con artist fox must work together to uncover a conspiracy." Rated PG. 108 minutes. Refreshments by Nature's Bakery, a local company.

Tuesday, June 14

1 - 2 p.m. Tuesday Book Group. The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah. "In the quiet village of Carriveau, Vianne Mauriac says goodbye to her husband, Antoine, as he heads for to war. The Nazis invade France in droves of marching soldiers, in caravans of trucks and tanks, in planes that fill the skies and drop bombs upon the innocent. When a German captain requisitions Vianne's home, she must live with the enemy or lose everything forcing her to make one impossible choice after another to stay alive."

Tuesday, June 14

5:30 - 7 p.m. Young Chautauquans. This award-winning program, now in its 24th year, teaches young people how to research and develop original Chautauqua presentations. Scholars, ages 8-18, select a historical figure and spend four months researching and rehearsing their characters in preparation for performances throughout the community and at the Nevada Humanities Festival and Chautauqua in June.

Tuesdays, June 14 & 28

6 - 7 p.m. Tech Cafés. One-on-one assistance with mobile devices, including accessing downloadable e-books and audiobooks. Please call for an appointment: 424-1800.

Sunday, June 19

1 - 2 p.m. Mystery Book Club. A Drop of the Hard Stuff by Kerry Lawrence Block. "Dealing with his first year of sobriety, Matthew Scudder finds himself on the trail of a killer. When Scudder's friend Jack Ellery is murdered, while attempting to atone for past sins, Scudder begins his own investigation, with just one lead: Ellery's Alcoholics Anonymous list of people he wronged. One of them may be a killer, but that's not necessarily Scudder's greatest danger. Immersing himself in Ellery's world may lead him right back to the barstool."

Sunday, June 26

10 a.m. - 9 p.m. Scrapbooking Sunday Bring your photos and basic supplies to this open scrap. Learn tips and tricks from fellow scrappers.

Tuesday, June 28
