

April 2018

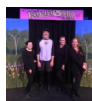

Library News & Events

Connecting people with information, ideas and experiences to support an enriched and engaged community, one person at a time.

Food for Fines April 1 - 30

Washoe County Library System is proud to partner again with the Food Bank of Northern Nevada and Project Mana for the spring "Food for Fines at the Library" event. Patrons can bring in one non-perishable food item for every overdue book or other item. (Food cannot be exchanged for lost or damaged library materials).

Brüka Theatre for Children

An original modern adaptation of the classic Grimm's tale of "The Frog Prince."

Saturday, April 7, 11 am, South Valleys Library

Wednesday, May 16, 4 pm, Incline Village Library

Wednesday, May 23, 5 pm, Northwest Reno Library

Erika Paul Trio

Music styles from more than a century of authentic American jazz are performed by this trio as they invite young audiences to engage in interactive participation.

Sunday, April 8, 1:30 pm, Sierra View Library

Maya Soleil Traditions

These touring artists present traditional African song and dance with performers from the countries of Zambia and Ghana. Authentic ethnic rhythms, vocals, and dancing captivate audiences of all ages and backgrounds.

Tuesday, April 17, 5:30 pm, Spanish Springs Library

Wednesday, April 18, 10:30 am, North Valleys Library

Wednesday, April 18, 4 pm, Sierra View Library

Saturday, April 21, 10:30 am, Sparks Library

Saturday, April 21, 1 pm, Northwest Reno Library

Saturday, April 21, 4 pm, South Valleys Library

Petroglyph - the Evolution of Music

Pete Fairley of MeadowRock Percussion joins David Blonski of Timeless Productions in this exploration of music from multiple cultures and historical eras.

Wednesday, April 18, 3 pm, Verdi Community Library

Saturday, May 19, 11 am, South Valleys Library

Sunday, June 3, 2 pm, Spanish Springs Library

Sunday, June 10, 1 pm, Downtown Reno Library

Above programs made possible through the Friends of Washoe County Library and Pioneer Center Youth Programs

History of Reno Chamber of Commerce

Presented by Historic Reno Preservation Society

With Joyce Cox, Author and Research Librarian

The Reno Chamber began as the Reno Improvement Society in 1898 and the Reno Commercial Club in 1906. To support local businesses and to promote Northern Nevada as a good place to live, the Chamber promoted the area with unique and innovative slogans as "Visit Reno on the Way" in 1939 and "Reno, Let's Tell the World" in 1949.

Wednesday, April 18, 5:30 pm, Northwest Reno Library

Reno's Early Meatpacking Industry

Presented by Historic Reno Preservation Society

With ZoAnn Campana, Historic Preservation Consultant and HRC Architectural Historian

Join us for a discussion of Reno's early meatpacking industry, as illustrated by the rise and fall of the Nevada Packing Company on E. 4th Street.

Sunday, April 22, 1:30 pm, Sierra View Library

Family Estate Planning Series

Wednesdays, March 28 to May 16, Sierra View Library

10:30 am to noon - or - 1:30 to 3 pm

Please visit washoecountylibrary.us for details

Get Involved with Nevada Reads

Love a good read? Nevada Reads—offered in partnership with Nevada Humanities—has not one but two excellent selections for the top of your 2018 "must read" list. Marlena: A Novel by Julie Buntin; Dreamland: The True Tale of America's Opiate Epidemic by Sam Quinones.

Book Discussions: Sunday, April 15, 1 pm, Downtown Reno Library

Tuesday, April 17, 6 pm, Incline Village Library

Watch for upcoming dates after April!

Friends of Washoe County Library

washoelibraryfriends.org or call 775-324-5522

To join, donate or for more information, please visit www.washoelibraryfriends.org or call 775-324-5522

All programs are free and open to the public. Visit us online at washoecountylibrary.us to discover more events, search for books, and explore online resources.

WASHOE COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM washoecountylibrary.us

VERDI COMMUNITY LIBRARY AND NATURE CENTER

Ongoing Events

'Make it on Wednesdays'
After school activities for kids now happening
every Wednesday:
2:30-4 pm

All programs are free.
Children under 9 must be accompanied by an adult, or a caretaker who is at least 13 years of age.

News and Events: April 2018

Trout in the Truckee

Wednesday, April 11, 2:30 pm

Learn about the Lahontan Cutthroat trout and other trout species in the Truckee River. Tricia Dutcher of the Nevada Department of Wildlife will talk about how NDOW protects the animals, birds and fish all around us. The Community Trout Release will be at Oxbow Nature Study Area at 10 am on Saturday, April 14.

Petroglyph The Evolution of Music

Wednesday, April 18, 3 pm

Pete Fairley of MeadowRock Percussion joins David Blonski of Timeless Productions in this exploration of music from multiple cultures and historical eras. As students experience the sounds of instruments ranging from the didgeridoo and table drums to guitar loops and electronic percussion, Pete and David weave a narrative linking the ancient with the modern.

Spring Break Activities

Tuesday, April 3, 3-4 pm Crafting Fun

Glue, scissors, paper...see what crafts our librarians have in mind!

Wednesday, April 4, 3-4 pm Fun with Play Dough

You can do some imaginative things with play dough and paper!

Friday, April 6, 3-4 pm Coding and Computer Fun

Try your hand at coding or playing computer games!

Verdi Community Library & Nature Center

270 Bridge Street
Verdi, Nevada 89439
775-345-8104

Tuesday 3:00 pm—6:00 pm
Wednesday 2:30 pm—6:00 pm
Friday 3:00 pm—6:00 pm
Monday, Thursday, Saturday, Sunday: Closed

WASHOE COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM washoecountylibrary.us

